1. Shine your light, O Lord, in our dark - ness. Be our hope, O God, in des - pair.
2. Grant that we might nour - ish the hun - gry, Bless with drink all peo - ple who thirst,
3. Grant that we might clothe the de - fense - less, And might care for those who are ill.
4. For we know that there we will find you, the least re - gard - ed of all.

Fill with love, O Lord, our im - per - fect hearts, That the lost may find you there.
Meet with wel - come those who are strange to us, For the last one shall be first.
Grant that we seek out the im - pris - oned ones Who are yearn - ing for you still.
So, to love you thus, Lord, pre - pare our hearts, Help us fol - low where you call.
